BLOWING UP OF A RAILWAY STATION

Explosion Work of Suffragettes in Retaliation for Sentence.

NO PERSON WAS HURT.

Empty Passenger Train on London and Northwestern Railway Partially Wrecked by Explosive.

London, April 4.—Suffragettes today blew up the railway station at Oxford in Surrey. An alarm clock set for 3 a. m., a contrivance similar to those used by dynamiters in U. S. was found in the wreckage and also a loaded pistol. Militant placards told that the explosion was the work of women.

The lavatory of the station was completely demolished and the walls, windows and doors damaged. So far as known, nobody was hurt.

The Greatwestern and the Midland Railways, in view of the outrages threatened by the militants last night in retaliation for the sentence passed on Mrs. Pankhurst, today issued a general warning to the public, and placed extra guards at all stations, tunnels and along their tracks.

Two hurrying young women carrying suit cases aroused the suspicion of South London policemen today, and the women were arrested. They readily admitted that they were militants and search revealed that their suit cases were filled with explosives and combustibles.

"Beware of how you treat Pankhurst," was the legend on placards found in possession of the women. They were taken to the police station and remanded for trial to the Croydon police court.

Stockport, Eng., April 4.—Explosives today partly wrecked a London Northwestern Railroad train near, here today. The carriages were almost empty and nobody was injured. Suffragettes were suspected of the wrecking, in revenge for the conviction of Mrs. Pankhurst.

The damaged train was entirely empty except for employes. It contained seventeen cars and the supposed bomb went off in a third-class carriage in the rear. Examination showed that the car had been saturated with rosin and fragments and a torn powder cannister were found. Railway officials said they were sure suffragettes were responsible.

SUGGESTIVE OF SUMMER.

Has anybody heard a noise like summer? From all the indications evident about town it would seem so. Traction companies in the capital are already operating open summer cars. Wherever a fruit tree exists the buds, especially pear, cherry and peach, are a wealth of blooms. Grass on the lawns is green and full of life, likewise the weeds. Butter cups are everywhere, a bright yellow against the attractive green of lawns and fields. The annuals are blossoming, strawberry short cake is here and the festive small boy is getting out his fish hooks and begging the family grocer for twine to use for sundry purposes, while his father, like an old war horse, feels the spring restlessness for quiet action near the water, in some quiet nook or pool where the lively minnow tempts the game fish to bite. Soon we will have the lawn festival, ice cream soirees and soda water contests. Truly, summer is a welcome guest at this time of the year.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

William Mathis, 87 years old, a retired farmer, was killed, his wife Mary and his daughter Ruth, 24 years old, were probably fatally injured, and 25 persons were seriously hurt yesterday by a tornado that passed within a half mile of Sturgeon, Mo. Twenty houses were demolished by the wind.

The Countess of Cowper, who died at Cannes on March 23, had a peculiar funeral at Hertingfordburg, England, yesterday. The coffin containing the body was taken to the church on a timber wagon by two farm horses. The white pall over the casket was made out of her wedding robe.

"We shall have free love; divorce by mere consent of the parties, and every evil which can result from the promiscuous commingling of the sexes if we give woman the vote." This was the sttement of John R. Dos Passos, of New York, in an address at an anti-suffrage mass meeting in Philadelphia. "Who are they that petition this change?" said Mr. Dos Passos, with vehemence. "Are they statesmen, philosophers, historians? ..No. We find such ladies as General Rosalie Jones, who walked 250 miles through mud, ice, and snow from New York to Washington. Pooh!"

Following the finding of her 3-year-old granddaughter's body in a mountain cave, Nancy Hannah, an aged resident of Haywood county, N. C., was arrested yesterday with the murder of the child. It is charged that the prisoner left her daughter's home a month ago with the child on the pretense of taking it to the county home. Developments are said to have shown, however, that the child had not been taken to that place, and searching parties were organized. The child is said to have disappeared a month ago. It was the daughter of Lizzie Hannah Putman, a daughter of the prisoner, and the former's husband, Will Putman, is being held as a witness.

Oscar H. Osman, an undertaker of Columbus, Ohio, who was arrested yesterday, charged with taking money from the body of Mrs. Sarah Sovill, a flood victim, was released on bond last night, and was immediately rearrrested "for investigation." The charge against Osman was made by two members of the Ohio National Guard, who declared that Osman promised to give them $25 or more apiece for every body turned over to him. They said they witnessed the finding by Osman of $265, when Mrs. Sovill's body was brought to Osman's undertaking establishment. Silas Sovill, son of the dead woman, said that he had reason to believe that his mother had $500 in her possession when she was drowned.

The sentence of three years' penal servitude imposed on Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the leader of the miltant suffragettes, for inciting her followers to destroy property, has aroused the English militants to fury, and they threaten strong reprisals. One of the militant leaders, in announcing the intentions of the suffragettes went so far as to say even human life would no longer be respected. One of the leaders gave out the folowing statement: "Human life is now in peril; for we have resolved no longer to respect it, and trouble of all sorts must be faced." Others are quoted as saying: "What we will do will more than 'stagger humanity.' The women who at first set fire only to unoccupied houses have made attempts in the last few days against occupied residences.

QUERY.

What has become of that baseball team scheduled to be organized among the office employes of the Southern Railway? The married men were to play against the single men.

Possibly it is true that the married ones would have to ring in some of their younger generation and the single men call in outsiders; otherwise it would have been a seven or eight instead of a nine.

MILITARY HONORS TO J. P. MORGAN

Remains of Financier Are Placed on French Steamer for New York.

10 MEN CARRY CASKET

During Funeral March "Star Spangled Banner, "America" and "Marsailles" Were Rendered.

(By William Phillip Simms.)
Paris Correspondent of United Press.

Havre, April 4.—With all the military honors due a commander of the Legion of Honor ,as well as the popular interest in the funeral of the world's greatest financier, the body of J. Pierpont Morgan arrived here by train today from Paris and was immediately transferred to the steamship La France which is scheduled to sail tomorrow for New York.

The Paris express arrived at Havre shortly after 6 o'clock and as soon as possible the funeral car bearing Morgan's body and the private cars of Herbert L. Satterlee, Mrs. Satterlee and their party were switched to a belt line and placed alongside the France's quay at 7 o'clock.

At 10:30 a. m., the casket was transferred from the car to the liner, being placed in an especially prepared mortuary on "E" deck, hung all in black velvet., with silver trimmings.

A batallion of the 129th French infantry was drawn up at the gang plank and ten stout men carried the massive box containing the four caskets incasing the body of the dead Morgan. The soldiers presented arms; the military salute for commanders of the legion was fired and the massed military bands played Chopin's "Marche Funerbe." The funeral march was followed by several American national hymns, including "Star Spangled Banner," and "America," and then the bands swung into the "Marseillaise."

The ceremony was a most impressive one. More than twenty thousand people crowded the quays to see the transfer of Morgan's body from the train to the ship, and as the casket went over the side and the bands played, almost every head was uncovered.

The Morgan party was met by the prefect of the department of the Seine, in which Havre is located, and M. Benoit, represented the French government. Gei. Capiomont commanded the soldiers, and John Bell Osborne, the American consulate at Havre, was on hand to render all possible assistance. Many members of the American colony from Paris as well as American residents of Havre were at the quay.

The body was accompanied to Havre by the Saterlees, Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton,granddaufihter of J. P. Morgan, Dr. Dickinson and H. H. Harjes.

THE FISHING SEASON.

Fishtown Shows No Signs of Awakening—Gillers Report Few Catches.

Half a century ago Fishtown was a busy mart at this time of the year. It is not so now, and from present indications, spring of 1913 will be akin to others of the past few years.

In the olden times all the fish caught on the Potomac were brought to Fishtown, where they were cut and packed, and many persons found employment during the few weeks the run was on.

But few fish now caught ever leave the shores upon which they are landed, as they are cut and packed immediately.

The gillers of this city report catching but few shad, hereabouts, so far. Seven or eight in a drift is about the maximum.

DOG WAGON TO START MONDAY

Leashing Unmuzzled Dogs Will not Meet The Requirements of the Law.

Mayor Fisher has made arrangements for starting the dog wagon on its crusade on Monday next. It is the determination of the authorities to pick up all ownerless and unlicensed dogs and remove them to a pound, and after the lapse of a few days, should not one appear, claim the animals and pay the license tax, they will be destroyed.

The mayor wants it known that leading dogs by ropes or strings or chains without muzzling the brutes is a violation of the law, and persons who persist in thus ignoring the requirements of the ordinance will be held responsible.

BATTLE IN FRONT OF MANUFACTORY

Six Strikers, Including Two Women, are Shot by Police.

PICKETING THE CAUSE

Six Rioters Drop at First Volley and Their Sympathizers Scatter in All Directions.

Auburn, N. Y., April 4.—Six twine mill strikers—two of them women—were shot and serously wounded by the police today in a battle that raged before the plant of the Columbian Rope Company. One man and one woman are expected to die.

Pedro Josca and an unidentified woman were shot through the body and at the hospital it was said they had little chance to live. Louis Medisoic and Adam Jzonkey were shot through the legs. Two others received minor wounds and were sent home after being treated by the ambulance surgeon.

The trouble arose when the strikers gathered in front of the plant to do picket duty. The city authorities had ordered the police to suppress the strikers because of previous trouble.

The police arrested a striker for shouting at workers in the plant and his companions remonstrated. At first the police only used their clubs but as the strikers fought back the police drew their revolvers and fired directly into the crowd.

As six of their number dropped from the volley the strikers dispersed in all directions. They re-gathered several blocks from the mill and more trouble was feared as the workers were roused to a high pitch of excitement by the shooting.

Those who were in the front ranks of a thousand or more strikers who faced the police. The police, headed by Chief W. P. Bell fired one volley over the heads of the crowd as it approached. Believing the police had loaded their revolvers with blank cartridges, the leaders of the strikers urged them onward. They closed with the police. It was those in the rear of the crowd against the front ranks that forced the women into the direct range of fire.

The police have already started a house-to-house canvas o fthe city on a general house canvas of the city on a general of the conditions just as they find them.

It is suggested by the officials of the health department that residents collect all rubbish, and, if unable to have it carted away or disposed of, to place it in the alleys where it will be collected by the city wagons as soon as possible.

Wm. A. Sweeney, superintendent of public schools, has starte a campaign among the schools and school children in an endeavor to interest each child in the clean-up week. The children, especially, are to be urged to aid in the work of collecting rubbish and keeping their own yards looking neat and clean at all times. Through the teachers the children of the city are to be reminded from time to time to help make the dirt fly, and to cooperate with their parents in making Alexandria one of the cleanest cities in the state of Virginia.

FRANCE RELEASES GERMAN AIRMEN

Aeronauts Carried No Photographic Apparatus in Flight.

MET WITH ACCIDENT.

Paris Paper,However, Views Incident Through Other Lenses— Great Chagrin in Germany.

Paris, April 4.—The detailed German army officers and their confiscated Zeppelin airship held up yesterday when they landed at Luneville, were released today by the French government. They will return to Germany as soon as the Zeppelin can be refilled with hydrogen.

Official investigation, it was announced, failed to show that the airship carried any photographic apparatus, and no basis was discovered for doubting the stories of the Germans, that they drifted over France inadvertantly and met with an accident.

The Paris Midi, in a special dispatch from Luneville today, says that contrary to the German officers statements that they inadvertantly blew across the French frontier, their air-craft is believed to have blown low over Berfort, Versoul, Vaucouleries, Passavant and Epinal, all of which are French stragetic points, commanding the German boundary.

From all these cities, says the Midi, reports have come that a strange airship was seen hovering over the fortifications within the past several days and it is strongly suspected that the captive Z-4 was that craft.

Luneville is ten miles from the Franco-German border and the landing of the airship on the, parade while French soldiers were maneuvering has created no end of excitement.

The Germans asserted that they left Lake Constance only yesterday morning, and got lost in the air, not knowing they were over the French territory until a broken shaft forced them to come to earth.

Berlin, April 4—News that France today released the German military airship Z-4 and the army officers who landed at Luneville, ten miles inside the French frontier, did not relieve the chagrin of the German war office. Their ariel navigation secrets, so closely guarded by the Germans since they built the first air fighting craft, now are known to be in the hands of the French, and this is the feature of the incident that most exasperates the war office.

It was suggested today that a court martial might await the unfortunate German officers when they return home. The Luneville affair occupied the German press today to the exclusion of all else. Editorials plainly hinted that should France refuse to give back the Zeppelin and detain the officers the present temper of Germany was such that most serious consequences might be perpetrated.

Dispatches, telling how French engineers and military aeronauts went all over the Z-4 examining her minutely from stem to stern did not lighten the gloom of German officialdom.

CHARGES PREFERRED.

Commonwealth's Attorney S. G. Brent has received a communication from the dairy and food department of the Pure Food Department of the state notifying him that charges had been preferred against the proprietors of certain lunch houses of Alexandria for serving oleomargine instead of butter. The names of the alleged offenders were furnished Mr. Brent and he has been requested to prosecute them.

ARRANGING FOR CHAUTAUQUA.

Dr. E. A. Turner, of the Swarthmore Chautauqua Association, of Philadelphia, was in the city today en route north. He reports that arrangements had been concluded for holding chautauquas at Leesburg, Winchester, Staunton, and Fort Royal, Virginia. Arrangements for chautauquas for Warenton, Manasas, Culpeper, and Orange, Virginia, will probably be concluded. Dr. Turner was in Alexandria several weeks ago, but failed to arouse sufficient interest in the educational movement here.

Men's Tailormade Clothing Ready-to-Be-Worn

Our Men's Clothing is ready to be put on; yet it is tailormade. This fact accounts for the excellence it possesses—the marks that distinguish it from the ordinary ready-to-wear clothing. In its designing and making we believe we have overcome every objection heard against ready-to-wear clothing.

This clothing can be bought with absolute certainty of fashionable correctness, individuality of style, tailoring of the highest order, and is consequenlty unequalled in service, shape-retaining qualities, and the points of merit that establish the value of clothing.

Men anxious for a style change can find plenty to interest them; Norfolks in variety, soft-roll effects, new English cuts, conservative styles—in fact any worthy style. Many shades and weaves.

Hart, Schaffner and Marx suits, in men's and young men's models, made especially for us, $18.00 to $40. Other suits from $12.50 upward.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

The period for filing of notices of candidacy in Democratic primary will expire y in June. CHARGED WITH KILLING.

Twenty-two "Holy Rollers" Indicted for Murder of Virginia Farmer.

Bristol, Tenn., April 4.—News has been received from Carroll county, Va., that the grand jury of that county has placed the responsibility for the murder of David King, a farmer, who was found dead in his barnyard two months ago, with his skull crushed, on members of the "Holy Roller" sect Twenty-two members of the sect were indicted.

It is alleged that the "Divine removal" of King was prayed for at a public meeting of the sect, and his dead body was found very soon thereafter. King is said to have opposed the "Holy Rollers" because his wife had become interested in their meetings.

SCHOONER SUNK.

Newport News, Va. April 4.—News of the sinking of the three-masted American schooner Samuel F. Beecher, and the rescue of her captain, crew, and one passenger by the British steamer Theodore de Larrinaga, Sunday, was brought here yesterday with the arrival of the steamer. The collision occurred Suday morning in the straits of Florida, off Sandy Key.

According to Capt. Fern, of the Larrinaga, the schooner attempted to cross the vessel's bow and was cut almost in half, sinking within three minutes. The Larrinaga was only slightly damaged.

FOR MONUMENT TO ALLENS.

Money Being Raised in Virginia for Memorial to Outlaws.

Richmond, Va., April 4.—Sympathizers of the Allens are going forward raising funds for the relief of Mrs. Floyd Allen, who mortgaged her home for $2,500 to raise funds for the defense of her husband, Floyd, and son, Claude, who were electrocuted here last Friday for their participation in the Hillsville courtroom tragedy.

E. F. Carter, employed at the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway shops in this city, raised $50 from among the employes of the shops. He says: "It is proposed to raise sufficient money to erect a monument to the memory of Claude Swanson Allen for bravery in defending his father, and also Floyd Allen, as the father of the son who had such eminent qualities of manhood."

William Hodges Mann., Jr., son of the Governor, has retired from the law office of O'Flaherty, Fulton & Byrd, where he has had office space. It is understood that young Mr. Mann did not wish to be so closely associated with the men who drew up what he terms the "obnoxious Allen petition," which questions the Governor's fitness for passing final judgment on the condemned men.

TAX LAWS' REVISION NEEDED.

It is an old saying that the way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it. From all parts of the state, county and city officers and private citizens without number have been protesting against the so-called arbitrary actions of State Auditor C. Lee Moore in his methods of getting full tax returns from the various county and city sub-divisions. Mr. Moore has more than once replied that he was merely enforcing existing law, wherein the trouble lay.

We are certainly not disposed to speak harshly of any state officer for doing his duty, and we believe that a careful study of our tax laws will convince any fair-minded citizent that these antiquated legislative enactments have long since outlived their usefulness on the pages of our statute books.

According to one of its members, a grand jury recently empanelled in Richmond to investigate the question of assessments and tax returns, found the laws on the subject so vague and uncertain that it was practically impossible to interpret them literally, and gave as their opinion that a tax-payer is unable to understand what his obligations really are. Surely those of us who have been given the blanks to fill out will agree with this statement.

It is almost a certainty that some provisions of these laws can never be enforced because of their unfairness. This is fully patent to the minds of the officers whose duty it is to collect our taxes. For instance, it is obviously unjust to lay a tax on borowed money, for it is really the property of the man who lends it, and he alone should pay the tax on it. Then, too, the man with a small bank deposit is getting less than 2 per cent on his savings, after the taxes are deducted, and this particular provision works a real hardship on a large class of people who are least able to bear it.

It has been substantially proved that the tax on bonds and other securities have been evaded to such an extent that only a very small percentage of them have really been listed for taxation.

Perhaps the greatest reason for revision of our statutes governing taxation lies in the inequalities which exist in the proportions of the burden borne by the counties and cities. It is a rare thing to find land in the country assessed at 50 per cent of its real value, and the average is in many counties as low as 20 per cent, while the cities are assessed at a much higher rate. This is manifestly unfair and will continue so until such time as the counties are force do levy their own real estate taxes, when, it is reasonable to suppose, they will be likely to assess at a fair valuation.

Surely the legislature of 1914 should give these questions an earnest consideration looking to an equitable adjustment of our whole system of taxation.

THE CALL OF THE MOOSE.

The warm spring breezes seem to have caused a flicker of life in the political organization which vaunted its claim so arrogantly in the campaign last summer, and which has lain dormant ever since. It has taken some months to revive it, apparently, but we are now hearing rumors of at least a partial resuscitation.

The so-called Progressives and Progressive Republicans have been in Congress all winter, but we would never have known it if they had not modestly raised their voices to answer an occasional roll call. But now conferences are being planned and schemes are being adopted for putting new life into the party organization. It is easy to understand this reviving interest. The Big Bull Moose has spoken. April's sun has seemed to warm his blood, and his call has rung through the nation to his erstwhile followers wherever dispersed.

How long would the Progressive party last without its leader? Why call it Progressive Party, or the Bull Moose Party or any other party but the Rooseyelt Party? Were he to return to Republicanism or come over to Democracy, his faithful henchmen would heed his call and follow. Progressive is a misnomer. It is the Roosevelt party, owing allegiance to no leader save Theodore, having no political creee or principles save his own fickle, changing theories, worshipping at no shrine save Oyster Bay. The Big Bull Moose has spoken. Now watch the faithful jump through the hoop and turn handsprings at his bidding.

A SPENDTHRIFT PEOPLE.

We have so frequently been branded a spendthrift peoplie, and, it must be admitted we have so often transgressed in this regard, that we should be about ready to plead guilty and assume full responsibility for this wilful national sin. Surery, in certain instances, a jury would acquit us of the charge out of sheer admiration for our prodigal liberality.

Now, when a part of the middle West is in dire distress, owing to flood conditions, countless hands stretch out to help and the purse-strings of rich and poor alike are unloosed in a generous whole-sould desire to be of service. Donations are freely offered, publicity is gladly given by the press to the work of collection, theatrical benefit performances are given gratis by the stars of high rank and no effort is spared to raise funds for the comfort and relief of the sufferers.

A spendthrift nation? Yes and a charitable nation as well, at a time when parsimony would present us in a very poor light.

EDITORIAL BREVITIES.

Now the world is guessing how much money J. P. Morgan had. The safest guess is that the majority of us are not going to get any of it.

OLD GLEE IS DEAD.

Poor old man Glee has passed away,
he didn't leave a sou,
His assets were a sunny smile and neighborliness true,
His children had to bury him and pay his funerals bills,
And pay the doctor's charges for his potions and his pills.

And yet these sons' and daughters' grief is real and sincere,
They'll miss the old man's happy laugh and generous god cheer, They'll miss his wholesome words of hope when clouds are in the sky,
And how they'll need his counsel when grim trouble hovers nigh.

And many a poor one's blessing went with him upon the way
From which there's no returning, and a prayer they daily say
Of thankfulness that they were given a chance to know this man, Whose words and deeds brought smiles and joy where'er his pathway ran.

And so old Glee has passed away
he left no earthly store
Of stocks and bonds and cash in bank, but crossed the river o'er
And left behind a heritage his children proudly own,
The memory of this man who won a place beside the throne.

If the rain came through his roof would D. N. Rust?

All that was left last night of Shawneetown, Ill., are the few substantial brick and stone buildings behind the main levee, and they are considered unsafe. Less than 100 persons remain in the former city of 2,000, and they are perched on the second and third stories of Main street buildings, structures on the highest street in the town. A strong wind, rising at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, completed the destruction begun by the opening of the south levee yesterday.

Although there is no direct evidence against them, the English suffragettes are generally credited with the attempt made to burn St. Jude's Free Church at Hempstead Heath, last night. Since the fire in the public institute and an unoccupied house in the same neighborhood a few weeks ago, rumors have been current that the women intended to set fire to the church, and special precautions have been taken against it. As the organist was entering the church he found a cupboard ablaze. The fire was quickly extinguished.

CLUB LOSES SUIT.

Roanoke Associaton Sought to Recover $1,800 From C. R. Williams.

Roanoke, Va., April 4.—C. R. Williams, former president of the Roanoke Baseball Association, was awarded a verdict by a jury yesterday in the third trial of the case of the association against him for the recovery of $1,800. Last year Williams sold a majority of the club's stock to Edmore D. Heins and others for $1,000.

Four months later a suit was instituted to recover the above amount alleged to belong to the association's treasury for the sale of players, including former pitcher Deane for $1,500. Williams claimed the money went to him as salary with the knowledge of other stockholders. The other trials resulted in hung jurys.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House' 'tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximateely twenty-seven hundred (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in 3 equal annual payments at one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments, secured by retention of title till paid.

SCORES TRIAL MARRIAGES.

Young Actress Asks for Annulment of Marriage Bond.

New York, April 4.—In annulling the trial marriage of Mona Morgan Coster, one of the youngest ingenues on the New York stage, Supreme Court Justice Cohalan yesterday said that the legislature should take steps to put a stop to such marriages.

Off the stage Miss Morgan is Mrs. Norman B. Coster, wife of an official in the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company. She married him on her 17th birthday, October 4 last, and lived with him only one month. Then she applied to the court to have the marriage annulled on the ground she was under the legal age of consent at the time of the mariage.

In announcing his decision Justice Cohalen called attention to the defects in the present law.

"In effect," said the court, "the law of the State of New York permits an infant, who marries under the age of 18, with or without the consent of her parents, and who subsequently leaves her husband before she is 18, to come into court, as a matter of course and obtain an annulment.

"This is to all intenas and purposes providing for a trial marriage."

Reconciled with her husband, Mrs. Augustus Heinz, died yesterday afternoon clasping his hands. Mrs. Heinz sucumbed to neuritis at her apartments in the Dorillton, New York, after an illness of seven weeks. At 29 years she came to the close of a romantic, eventful life, tinged at the last with deepest sorrow. So deeply did she feel the outcome of the divorce proceedings against her husband that she had not permited her attorneys to apply for the signing of the final decree, which would have been operative on the 16th of last month.

MRS. McGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts In Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.
